

Complainant present.
Learned counsel for complainant present.

Learned counsel for complainant prays time to take steps. Sufficient time already granted. In spite of repeated issuance of notice, the complainant is not taking steps to secure the accused. Further upon directions also the complainant not furnishing the proper address of the accused. Hence, no grounds are made out, prayer rejected. In the result the case is dismissed for default.

XIX Addl. SCJ