ORDER

By this order, this Court intends to dispose of the present bail application under section 483 of BNSS filed by the applicants/accused Rashpal Singh@ Jaspal Singh, Gursewak Singh @ Sewak and Varinder Singh @ Abbu.

2. Notice of the bail application was served upon the State through learned Additional PP alongwith copy of bail application, who received the same, appeared and contested the bail application on merits.

The main challan file which is pending in this court has also been put up by the Ahlmad.

3. I have heard the respective submissions of both the sides and carefully gone through the police file.

4. Applicant-accused by way of filing this bail application under section 483 of BNSS has submitted that they are innocent person and have been falsely implicated in the present case. That applicants namely Rashpal Singh@ Jaspal Singh and Varinder Singh @ Abbu have been implicated on the disclosure statement made by co-accused Gursewak Singh. That the applicants/accused are in judicial custody since 2.4.2025 and 3.4.2025 respectively and they are not required for further investigation. That co-accused has already granted regular bail by this court. That nothing was recovered from the possession of applicants. That the conclusion of trial will take sufficient time and no useful purpose for keeping the applicants behind the bars. That applicants undertakes to abide by all the terms and conditions of this court and has prayed that he be granted regular bail.

5. On the other hand, learned Additional PP for the State opposed the bail application on the grounds that the applicant alongwith his companions had snatched the motor cycle as well as cash amount of Rs. 7500/- by threatening the complainant with the pistol. And that due to the serious nature of accusations, applicant does not deserve the concession of regular bail and the same may kindly be dismissed.

6. From the submissions made by the learned counsel for the applicant-accused and learned Additional PP for the State, I am of the considered view that the applicants/accused are in judicial custody for the last more than four months and they are not required for further investigation. That there is no chance of the applicants interfering into investigation of the case as the challan has already been presented in the court and the recovery has already been effected from the applicants/accused, accordingly, the bail application of applicants-accused filed under Section 483 of BNSS is allowed and they are ordered to be released on bail on their furnishing bail bonds in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- each with one surety in the like amount each to the satisfaction of Trial Court/ Illaqa/Duty Magistrate subject to the following conditions :-

- A. That the applicants shall appear before the Trial Court on each and every date of hearing.
- B. That the applicants shall not directly or indirectly induce or coerce any witness of prosecution so as to dissuade them from deposing as witness in the Court.
- C. That the applicants shall not leave India without prior permission of the Court.

Police record be returned and the file of this bail application be attached with the remand papers/challan file.
