Wings Pharmaceuticals P Ltd Vs. IGMA LTD

08.05.2026 (At 10:53AM)

Present : Sh. Sachin Gupta, Ms. Sunita and Ms. Charu Raghav,
Ld. Counsels for the plaintiff.

Rectified plaint has been filed. Ld. counsel also made submissions with support of judgment passed by Hon'ble Delhi High Court in Pankaj Ravjibhai Patel Trading as Rakesh Pharmaceuticals v. SSS Pharmachem Pvt. Ltd., 2023 SCC OnLine Del 7013. The crux of his arguments is that plaintiff is at liberty to make valuation of the suit, which is to be accepted by the court. However, it was made clear to ld. counsel that such question was not raised so as to dispute the given valuation of the suit for the purpose of jurisdiction and court fee. On last date direction was given to calculate and plead for specified value of the intangible right, for which the suit has been filed by plaintiff. In the amended plaint, though addition has been made in the relevant paragraph, however, it needs consideration whether this pleading is sufficient. Hence matter is reserved for consideration on that aspect.

Put up for orders on 11.05.2026.
