

12 CS (COMM.) 877/25

State Bank Of India Vs. Ikramuddin Siddiqui

20.01.2026 (At 12:59PM)

Present : Sh. Jeewan Prakash Gupta, Ld. Counsel for the plaintiff through video conferencing with Ms.
Chinmayaa, Advocate in person.
None for the defendant.

As per report received, defendant was served through WhatsApp on given mobile number on 05.12.2025, which was so furnished by defendant to plaintiff bank. Summons were also sent through email, but same was bounced. Defendant was not found present at the given address. Tracking report of DTDC courier filed, which shows that it was delivered on 01.12.2025. In any case, defendant is deemed to be served through WhatsApp on 05.12.2025. Stipulated period of 30 days has already lapsed, but neither any written statement has been filed nor any one has appeared for defendant to seek extension of time. There is no reason for this court to assume any justification for defendant to not file the same within stipulated period and to suo moto extend the time limit for filing written statement. Hence, opportunity to file written statement is closed.

Put up for plaintiff's evidence on 28.04.2026.
Plaintiff's witness shall come prepared with all the original documents.

Pulastya Pramachala
District Judge (Commercial Court)-01
Patiala House Court, New Delhi.
20.01.2026