IDFC FIRST BANK LIMITED Vs SURESH SINGH

Present: Ms. Srishti, proxy counsel for the complainant.

Non-bailable warrants of the accused received back unexecuted due to rush of work and short time. It is causing unnecessary delay in disposal of the present case. Perusal of the file reveals that despite repeated issuance of summons through ordinary course, NBW through local police, the accused has failed to put up his appearance. It shows that accused is deliberately evading arrest. In view of these circumstances, this court has sufficient grounds to presume that further coercive method is required to be adopted for procuring the presence of the accused. Let accused be now served through publication forms to be published in “Pioneer” on depositing of publication charges for 14.08.2026.
