Pr: Proxy counsel for plaintiff.

Counsel for defendant.

The case is fixed for arguments but request for adjournment is made by proxy counsel for plaintiff for arguments without any ground which is vehemently opposed as delaying tactics as there is no cause of action for filing of suit and this court has no jurisdiction to entertain this suit.

In view of abovesaid facts and circumstances, one more opportunity is granted to plaintiff to argue the application U/o 6 Rule 17 CPC failing which this court shall pass the order as per law.

Put up for 22.01.16.
