

23.11.2016

Present: Plaintiff in person.
Ms. Pushp Gupta, counsel for defendant no.2.
Sh. N.Pandey, counsel for defendant no.1.

Counsel for the plaintiff is not available. Plaintiff stated that her counsel will not come and she will herself argue in rebuttal.

Augments heard for about 50 minutes. Counsel for defendants completed their arguments and plaintiff also herself stated various things in rebuttal. During rebuttal arguments plaintiff stated that she wants to withdraw her application under Order 7 Rule 14 CPC for brining on record the documents and will file the same alongwith replication. On the other hand, an objection is raised that such documents cannot be now taken on record alongwith the replication and if she filed the same, then again application of the defendants will come to take the same out of the record.

Since, the counsel for the plaintiff is not available today so she is directed to consult her counsel first before withdrawing any application and also know the consequences of the same whether it can be filed alongwith replication or not.

Put up this matter on 14.12.2016 at 2:30 p.m. for further proceedings. Plaintiff is directed to bring her counsel on next date definitely.
