

T.S.20/11

35/23.08.13

Parties file hajiras.

Two injunction applications are pending for hearing.

Both applications are taken up for hearing together.

Heard both sides. Considered.

At the time of hearing the ld. Advocate for the defendant concedes that he has no objection if an order of status quo in respect of possession of the suit property is passed.

In view of the consent of the ld. Advocate representing the contesting defendants both the injunction applications are disposed of.

Both parties are directed to maintain status quo in respect of their respective possession of the suit properties as of this date till disposal of this suit.
