PARAMJIT SINGH Vs State of Punjab

Present: Sh. Pritpal Singh Syan Advocate, counsel for the applicant.
Sh. Harminder Singh, Addl.PP for the State.

This is a bail application U/s 482 of B.N.S.S., filed by Ld. Counsel for the bail applicant, for grant of anticipatory bail to the bail applicant in unknown FIR.

Notice of the bail application was issued to State through Ld. Public Prosecutor for the State.

Today, ASI Sudesh Kumari, No.2/FGS, has come present and suffered statement that no FIR till date is registered against the applicant and only complaint no.677 dated 12.03.2025 is pending against the bail applicant for enquiry at Women Cell, Fatehgarh Sahib.

In these circumstances since there is no FIR registered against the applicant, no blanket bail can be granted. Thus at this stage no further action upon this bail application is warranted for. However if in the future the police proceeds to register any FIR against the bail applicant as an outcome of the pending inquiry, a three day prior notice be issued to the applicant before taking any steps towards his arrest so that he is facilitated to invoke his remedies U/s 482 of B.N.S.S, 2023. The bail application of applicant stands dismissed being infructuous. File be consigned to the record room.
