through the record.

Arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the applicant/accused:

4. The learned counsel for the applicant/accused has submitted that applicant/accused has been falsely implicated in the present case and is in custody since 10.06.2026. The alleged recovery has already been effected which is marginally above the small quantity and falls in non commercial segment. Presentation of challan and conclusion of trial is likely to take time. Hence, the prayer for relief of regular bail has been made.

Arguments advanced by Learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State:

5. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State has opposed the bail application on the ground that as the allegations against the applicant are grave in nature, he does not deserve the leniency of the Court in grant of relief of bail. It has been prayed that bail application of the applicant/accused be dismissed.

Factual matrix of the Case:

6. The criminal law was set into motion on the allegations that on 10.06.2026, accused Amritpal Singh alias Ambri was apprehended on the basis of suspicion and 9.05 Gram heroin was recovered from him.

Findings:

7. After giving my thoughtful consideration to the rival submissions and on careful perusal of the averments put in the application, contents of the FIR, perusal of the record, coupled with the assistance rendered, it is pertinent to make mention that perusal of the file reveals that the applicant/accused is in custody since 10.06.2026. The recovery has already been effected from applicant/accused which is marginally above the small quantity, thus falling in non-commercial segment. Rigours of section 37 NDPS Act is thus not attracted to the facts of the case. Presentation of challan will take time. No useful purpose would be served by detaining the accused/applicant in custody for an indefinite period, rather he will be a burden on the State Exchequer. In the gamut of the circumstances of the case, without further meticulously examining the evidence on record and without commenting upon the merits of the case, applicant/accused is subjected to bail on his furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the tune of Rs.1 Lac with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned Illaqa/Duty Magistrate, subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (i) Applicant shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person(s) acquainted with the facts of the case, so as to dissuade him/them from disclosing the true facts to the court or to any police officer or in any other way tamper with the prosecution evidence;
- (ii) Applicant shall not leave the country without prior permission of the Court;
- (iii) Applicant shall remain present before the Trial Court on
