

7 CA / 83/2025
HARI KISHORE Vs. STATE
FIR No. 106/2002
PS (G.T.B. Enclave)

02.09.2025

Present: Sh. Rajesh Kumar, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
Appellant present through VC.
Sh. Dishant Kumar, Ld. Proxy counsel for appellant.
Sh. Prashant Kumar, Ld. Counsel for appellant through VC.

An exemption application has been filed on behalf of appellant on the ground of illness. The same is also supported with medical record. However, the last medical prescription is dated 23.06.2025.

It is relevant to note here that on the LDOH also an exemption application was filed on behalf of accused on the same grounds and it was allowed subject to production of relevant medical record.

Though, the appellant who is appearing through VC is seen in not a good shape of health, however, since, the medical record furnished relating to the illness is not his latest medical record, the Ld. Counsel is directed to file fresh medical record of the appellant by NDOH.

Further since, record reveals that notice of appeal has not been directed to be issued and served to respondent no. 2, let, notice of appeal be also issued to respondent no. 2 for the NDOH.

Put up for 29.10.2025.

(BALWINDER SINGH)
ASJ (FTC)/North-
East/KKD Courts/
Delhi/02.09.2025