

MASTER DEVYANSHU GOYAL Vs. YOGESH GOYAL

09.01.2026

Present: Ld. counsel for plaintiffs.
None for defendant.

Plaintiffs (through their mother) have moved an application u/O VI Rule 17 CPC along with proposed amended plaint. They have also preferred an application u/O XXXII Rule 1 CPC. A copy of settlement entered between mother of plaintiffs/Jyoti and her in-laws have been filed in terms of order dated 08.07.2025. Perusal of the same shows that various suits are being referred in the said settlement and it is not clear from the said settlement as to who were the parties in the suits.

Prima facie, it appears that plaintiffs' mother Jyoti took money (a sum of Rs.7.5 lacs) on behalf of herself as well as her minor children i.e. the plaintiffs herein in lieu of share in property bearing no. J-277 (old no. 200/12), Gali no. 2, Shivaji Marg, 4th Pushta, Kartar Nagar, Delhi-53. This is the same property qua which plaintiffs are before this court inter alia seeking partition.

Let Jyoti Goyal appear in person physically in court on NDOH and file certified copy of the pleadings as well as the decree passed, if any, in the matters referred in the settlement dated 31.03.2022 filed in court today. She shall also file an affidavit indicating as to whether she has received the sum of Rs.7.5 lacs in pursuance to the said settlement or not and also file on record an explanation that if she had already received money in terms of the settlement on her behalf as well as on behalf of both the plaintiffs, why this fact is not disclosed in the plaint in question? She shall also file relevant documents qua receipt of money in terms of said settlement.

List on 24.02.2026.
