ORDER PASSED BELOW EXH.1
(Passed on 11.06.2019)

The accused Mayur Ashok Wagh voluntarily pleaded guilty of the offence punishable 12(a) M.G. Act of which particular has been orally explained to him. I found that the guilt so confessed by him is without any compulsion force or inducement. I have also explained & informed him that in case he would plead guilty, he might be subjected to the maximum punishment as prescribed for the above offence & therefore he should not remain under the impression that he should be awarded lesser punishment by the Court if he would plead guilty, Even then accused asserted that he is voluntarily pleading guilty in the matter.

Being convinced of the voluntary nature of the plea of guilty, I accepted the same.

Having regard to the nature of the crime committed by the accused & having heard him for showing the leniency whereby he stated that, he is poor person, it is his first offence and that, he is the only earning member of his family, I am of the opinion that following sentence shall serve the ends of justice. Hence the following order.

O R D E R

- 1] The accused Mayur Ashok Wagh is convicted vide sec 252 of Cr. P. C. for the offence punishable U/sec 12(a) of Maharashtra Prevention of Gambling Act, 1887.
- 2] He is sentenced to suffer S.I. till rising of the court.
- 3] He is further sentenced to pay fine of Rs.300/- (Rupees Three Hundred only) and in default to suffer S.I. for 2 days .
- 4] The seized cash amount of Rs.450/- be forfeited to the Government and other muddemal properties i. e. satapati akade and dot pen being worthless, be destroyed as per the provision Section 452 of Cr.P.C.

Akash Ambadas Pittalwar vide the pursis Exh. 92 pleaded guilty of offence of which particulars had been explained to them vide Exh.61. I found that the guilt so confessed by them is without any compulsion force or inducement. I have also explained & informed them that in case they would plead guilty, they might be subjected to the maximum punishment as prescribed for the above offence & therefore they should not remain under the impression that they should be awarded lesser punishment by the Court if they would plead guilty, Even then accused persons asserted that they are voluntarily pleading guilty in the matter.

Being convinced of the voluntary nature of the plea of guilty, I accepted the same.

Having regard to the nature of the crime committed by the accused persons & having heard them for showing the leniency where by they stated that, they are poor persons, it is their first offence and that, they are the only earning members of their respective family, I am of the opinion that following sentence shall serve the ends of justice. Hence the following order.
