FIR no.144/25
PS Sonia Vihar

09.06.2026

Ld. ASJ is on leave

Present: Sh. Gaurav Singh, ld. Addl. PP for the State.

Accused Gaurav produced from J/C.

Accused Charat in person.

Accused Faim is not present.

Accused Rizwan in person, on interim bail.

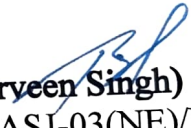

Ms. Rani, ld. counsel for accused Rizwan.

An application for exemption from personal appearance of accused Faim has been placed before me. It is submitted that this was given in the morning in the court concerned by ld. counsel for accused Faim. It is 2.30 p.m. Neither ld. counsel for accused is present nor any medical certificate in respect of illness of accused has been shown. It is a printed format and the reason cited does not inspire any confidence. Application is dismissed. Issue N.BWs against accused Faim with notice to his surety for the next date of hearing.

Accused Gaurav requests that a counsel from legal aid be provided to him. In these circumstances, information be sent to the DLSA to provide a LADC to him because he is unrepresented. At the same time, it has been observed by the court that accused was granted bail on 21.04.2026. It has been one month since then and no bail bond has been furnished. It is submitted by accused that due to poverty, his family is not able to furnish a bail bond to the tune demanded. In these circumstances, bail conditions as far as requirement of surety are concerned are hereby modified. Accused shall be admitted to bail on furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/-with one surety in like amount to the satisfaction of court. However, the remaining bail conditions as imposed vide order dt. 21.04.2026 shall remain the same. Accused Rizwan is stated to be on interim bail. Matter is adjourned. The interim bail of accused Rizwan is extended till the next date of hearing.

Re-notify on 01.07.2026.
