

Counsels and parties are present. Heard and perused. The contents of Joint memo is read over explained to the parties. They admit the contents appearing therein are true. Since the contents of joint memo is not against to any law, the same is accepted. Both parties are permitted to enter into compromise in terms of Joint memo.

Accordingly, the petition is disposed off in terms of Joint memo.

Respondent is directed to enter the date of birth of the petitioner as agreed in the Joint memo, by collecting necessary fees besides late fee if any.

Accordingly petition is disposed off

Prl. Civil Judge & JMFC
Shahapur

Non Judicial Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator