

20 EX 56/26
AZAD Vs. MCD

02.02.2026

Present: Sh. A.K. Singh, Ld Counsel for DH.
None for MCD.

At this stage, Ld Counsel for the DH upon instructions submits that no amount has been received by the DH as against the decretal amount and the entire decretal amount of Rs.30,59,821/- is outstanding and payable. With these submissions, Ld Counsel has prayed for issuance of warrants of attachment against the account of the JD for Rs.30,59,821/-.

At this stage, Ld Counsel for the DH verbally submits that inadvertently, in the execution petition, the account number of the JD has wrongly mentioned as bank account no.37121062751 instead of 41010068213 and prays that the warrant of attachment qua the decretal amount may be issued against the said account.

As transpires from the record that notice of the present petition was directed to be issued to the JD/MCD vide order dated 06.01.2026 with the clear direction to make submissions qua the payment if any made to the DH towards the satisfaction of the decretal amount. Reportedly, notice has been duly served upon the JD/MCD on 14.01.2026. However, neither any reply has been filed nor any one is in attendance on behalf of JD/MCD today.

As such, in view of the submissions of Ld Counsel for the DH and in the absence of any claim having been made on behalf of JD as regards the payment, if any, made to the Decree Holder towards the decretal amount despite having been given adequate opportunity and the notice of the present proceedings, this Court is prima facie satisfied as to the entire decretal amount being outstanding and payable as on date and as such, constrained to take coercive steps to recover the decretal amount and accordingly, let warrants of attachment for an amount of Rs.30,59,821/- be issued against the JD/MCD of the Bank Account no. 41010068213, State Bank of India, Chandani Chowk Branch Delhi on PF subject to the filing of self attested copies of ID proof/Identity card issued by the MCD)/PAN card/Aadhaar card, BMID number and Ward number/zone as well as photocopy of the passbook of the DH (if already not filed). Steps be taken within 2 weeks from today.

DH is also directed to file affidavit that there is no stay or appeal pending against the present execution petition alongwith the PF.

It is directed that concerned Bank Manager shall remit the said amount to the Court after attachment either in the form of demand draft or banker's cheque in the name of the DH.

JD is given liberty to make submissions qua the payment if any made to the workman in respect of the decretal amount positively on or before next date of hearing.

Now to come up on 27.02.2026.
