JUDGMENT
(Delivered on 13.07.2026)

The present summary suit is instituted to recover an amount of Rs. 2,50,000/- alongwith interest @ 18% per annum.

Brief facts of the plaintiff's case is as under:-

02. The plaintiff is the proprietor of Sheetal Health Care Services, a registered supplier/distributor of cardiac stents, PTCA balloons, spinal implants and other medical devices. The defendant runs Hope Hospital and Ayushman Nagpur Hospital and their respective pharmacies. According to the plaintiff, from April 2023 onwards the defendant regularly placed oral purchase orders for supply of medical devices. The plaintiff supplied the goods from time to time and invoices were raised accordingly. Initially, payments were allegedly made, creating confidence between the parties. Subsequently, despite acceptance of the goods, the defendant allegedly failed to pay the outstanding amount of rs.2,02,724/-. A legal notice dated 03.02.2025 demanding payment was served but no payment was made by the defendant. Hence, the present suit.

03. Suit summons were issued to defendants under Order 37 Rule 2 of C.P.C. and duly served to the defendants. But they remained absent. Therefore, matter proceeded ex-parte against him.

04. Perused the record. Heard learned advocate for the plaintiff at length. The points which arise for determination along-with findings and reasons are as under:-

Sr.No	POINTS	FINDINGS
1	Whether the plaintiff is entitled to the relief claimed?	Yes
2.	What order ?	Suit is decreed with costs.

REASONS

05. In order to prove the case, the plaintiff has filed affidavit, filed/uploaded certified copies documents with list under the caption of Exh.14 The registration certificate is at (Exh.14/1), copy of copy of Ledger Book is at (Exh.14/2), copy of legal notice is at (Exh.14/3), postal receipt (Exh. 14/4) and Acknowledgment (Exh.14/5) etc. The suit was filed under the summary procedure under Order 37 R 2 of CPC. The summon was served to defendants and defendants fail to appear. So, as per Order 37 R 3 of C.P.C., it becomes clear that the claim of the plaintiff required to be admitted. The plaintiff is claiming Rs.2,02,724/- as a total claim.

POINT NO.1 and 2 :

06. Both these points are interlinked. Hence to avoid repetition taken up together. As per certificate of GST registration and other documents, he is proprietor proprietor of Sheetal Health Care Services, a registered supplier/distributor of cardiac stents, PTCA balloons, spinal implants and other medical devices etc. The defendant runs Hope Hospital and Ayushman Nagpur Hospital and their respective pharmacies. That, the plaintiff issued a notice to the defendant by virtue of registered post. The defendant is having outstanding amount which commence from 24.04.2023 vide invoice No.3540, and repeatedly remains undue and delivery of the medical equipments worth Rs.25,011/- dated 14.05.2024 whose invoice No.4906 respectively. which commence from 24.04.2023 till today i.e. until 14.05.2024, i.e. until the last delivery of the medical equipments to defendant either at Hop.

07. By way of bill and tax invoices shows that plaintiff's firm has delivered the goods to the defendant as per their purchase order. The e-way bill and tax invoice co-related with each other and corroborating to ledger account. All these documents proved by the plaintiff. It is pertinent to note that entire evidence of plaintiff is unchallenged. Therefore, I do not find any doubt to allow the claim of plaintiff in respect of supply of goods of amount of Rs.2,02,724/-. Therefore, the documents filed by the plaintiff under the caption of Exh.14, does not support to the alleged amount claimed by plaintiff i.e. 2,50,000/-. Hence, actual outstanding amount of Rs.2,02,724/- is due against the defendant.

08. The plaintiff is claiming interest at the rate of 18 percent annum. Section 34 of the Code of Civil Procedure, speaks that, interest may be awarded only if agreed by the contract, provided by statute, established by mercantile usage, or found reasonable by the Court. The plaintiff has claimed penal interest at 18%. No written agreement regarding 18%. Section 34 of the Code of Civil Procedure further speaks that, in so far as a decree is for the payment of money, interest at such rate as the Court deems reasonable to be paid on the principal sum adjudged, from the date of suit to the date of decree can be ordered.

09. In addition to such interest, future interest can be ordered to be paid from the date of decree to the date of payment, but it shall not exceed the contractual rate of interest. Considering the nature of transaction in between plaintiff and defendants it would be suffice to order to pay interest @ 12% per annum on the principal sum adjudged from the date of suit till the date of realization. Accordingly, I answered point No. 1 partly in affirmative and in answer to point No.2, I pass following order is passed.

ORDER

1. The suit is decreed with costs.
2. The defendant do pay an amount of Rs.2,02,724/- (Rupees Two Lac Two Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty Four Only) to the plaintiff with future interest at the rate of 12.00 % per annum from the date of suit till its realization.
3. Decree be drawn up accordingly.
