ORDER

By way of this order, I shall dispose of the bail application filed on behalf of applicant-accused Vijay for grant of regular bail in the aforesaid FIR.

Amit Kumar Grover
Additional Sessions Judge,
Chandigarh/11.08.2026
UID No.HR-0272

2. Both parties stated that no similar bail application is pending before the Hon'ble High Court. The report of the Ahlmad also confirms that no such bail application filed by the applicant/accused is either decided or pending before the Hon'ble High Court.

3. It is mentioned in the bail application as well as argued by the learned Assistant LADC for the applicant-accused that the FIR in the present case was registered against unknown persons. The applicant/accused has been falsely implicated in the present case. No recovery has been effected from the applicant/accused. False recoveries have been planted upon the accused persons. The applicant/accused is in custody since 03.04.2026. Investigation is complete and charges against the accused have been framed under Section 317 (2) read with Section 3 (5) of the BNS, 2023, which is punishable with maximum imprisonment for a period of 3 years or fine or with both. No useful purpose would be served keeping the accused in custody. He is ready to abide by the terms and conditions of bail. Hence, it is prayed that the present application be allowed.

4. Upon notice, reply to the said bail application was filed, wherein the facts mentioned in the FIR were reiterated. It is further contended that the applicant/accused is involved in as many as 5 other FIRs. There are serious chances of applicant/accused again committing such incidents and further influencing the witnesses. The applicant/accused is a clever minded person and he may evade the process of law.

5. I have considered the rival submissions and perused the record.

6. FIR in the present case was registered on the complaint of Mohd. Shahnawaz son of Nafish resident of House No.746, Ground Floor, Small Flats, Dhanas, Chandigarh, vide which he reported that on 28.03.2026 at about 11.00 am, he along with his family members had gone to attend the marriage function of his relatives at Sector 45, Burail, Chandigarh. However, when on 29.03.2026 they came back at home, they found the house hold luggage in scattered manner and further the back door of the house was broken. On checking they found that cash approximately ₹2,30,000/- and gold articles i.e. 4 pair ear rings, 4 nose pin and 1 pair silver payal were stolen and that he has doubt that some unknown persons had stolen the same.

7. During investigation, three accused persons were arrested. The applicant/accused was arrested on 03.04.2026. The co-accused Shitla Parsad has already been granted the concession of bail vide order dated 23.07.2026 by the court of learned Sessions Judge, Chandigarh. After completion of the investigation, the charges in the present case have been framed. As per the charge sheet, all the accused persons are booked under Section 317 (2) read with Section 3 (5) of BNS only. The maximum imprisonment for the above offence is three years or fine or with both.

Recovery, if any, has already been effected. The applicant is in custody since 03.04.2026. Hence taking into note the said factum as the recovery has already been effected, the applicant is in custody since 03.04.2026 and the criminal liability, if any, against the applicant can be determined only after holding of regular trial. It shall serve no useful purpose to keep applicant behind the bars for an indefinite period. Hence, taking note of the totality of the facts and without expressing any word upon merits of case, the bail application is allowed. The applicant is hereby admitted to regular bail on his furnishing the bail bonds in the sum of ₹25,000/- with one surety in the like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Illaqa/Duty Magistrate, with the directions that applicant shall not tamper with the prosecution evidence, he shall not leave the country without prior permission of the Court and he shall appear in the court on each and every date hearing. Copy of order be sent to the Illaqa/Duty Magistrate for compliance. File be consigned to the record room.

8. It is clarified, lest it be misconstrued, that any observation made hereinabove shall not affect the merits of the main case.
