

State Vs. _____

TRF- _____

Present: Learned APP for the State.
 None for the accused.

File taken up today. Despite issuance of notices on several dates, none appeared on behalf of accused. Accordingly, this court is of the opinion that since the accused is not appearing before the court despite repeated summons being sent to him, no useful purpose would be served by keeping in challan pending as issuing summons time and again shall lead to exorbitant expenditure of process serving. Accordingly, the proceeding in present challan are hereby stopped under Section 258 Cr.P.C. and same be consigned to the record room.
