File is taken up today on an application for grant of NOC for renewal of the passport of the applicant/accused and permission to travel abroad moved on behalf of applicant/accused Vikas Dabas.

Present: Sh. J. S. Malik, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
Sh. Sahil Malik, Sh. Aditya Jain and Ms. Tanisha
Malik, Ld. Counsels for applicant/accused.

This is on an application for grant of NOC for renewal of the passport of the applicant/accused and permission to travel abroad moved on behalf of applicant/accused Vikas Dabas.

Submissions Heard.

Keeping in view the submissions of Ld. Counsel for applicant / accused, this Court has no objection if the concerned passport authority considers the case of Applicant for grant of NOC for the purpose of renewal of passport on its merit as per existing law and rules. Further, no condition with respect to travelling abroad has been imposed in the bail order dated 24.11.2011, therefore, this Court has no objection if the Bureau of Immigration, Govt of India considers the case of applicant/accused Vikas Dabas for travel approval on its merit as per existing law and rules.

Application stands disposed off, accordingly.

Copy of the order be given dasti, as prayed for.
