placed on file. It is submitted that they have assured in the panchayat that they will not quarrel with each other and this compromise has been effected between the parties without any pressure and therefore, it has been prayed that offence may kindly be compounded. Statements of both the parties have also been recorded.

2. The present prosecution has been lodged on the basis of statement of complainant Kavita wife of Amar Singh and the FIR was lodged under Sections 323 and 506 read with section 34 of IPC on the basis of statement of complainant. The accused have been charge-sheeted under sections 323 and 506 read with section 34 of IPC, accordingly.

3. Now, as per the application moved on behalf of complainant party, the matter has been settled between the parties with the intervention of Panchayat. For peace, harmony and cordial relations between the parties, it is prayed that permission may kindly be granted to compound the offence. Complainant and accused have been examined in the Court. From the examination, it appears that compromise is without any pressure and undue influence and is purely voluntary.

4. Further, as per Section 320(1)Cr.P.C., the offence under Sections 323 and 506 read with Section 34 of IPC can be compounded by the person to whom the hurt is caused and the person intimidated.

5. Voluntariness of the compromise confirmed. In the interest of justice and for maintenance of peaceful and cordial relation between both the parties, the offence under Sections 323 and 506 read with Section 34 of IPC stands compounded.

6. In view of compounding of offence by the complainant, the accused stands acquitted of the charges levelled against them. Since the accused are on bail, their bail bonds stands discharged. File be consigned to the records, after due compliance.
