

20 Misc Ex 5/26 Sunita Rani Vs. UNION OF INDIA AND ORS
(EX)

24.03.2026

Present: Counsel for applicant.

The release of the compensation was already ordered on 13.09.2019. Thereafter, a misc. application no 1728/25 was again filed for seeking the release, which was disposed of by this court on 28.11.2025. Meaning thereby, despite repeated orders directing release of the compensation, apparently the applicant is not coming forward to seek the release. Instead, he has been filing repeated applications. It is thus noted that if any fault on part of the applicant is found qua the delayed release, the interest for the relevant period would be declined.

Put up with the main file on 15.05.2026.

The details of the decided file shall be provided by the applicant within a week.
