

ORDER BELOW EXH. 1 IN SPL(C) MA NO. 226 OF 2014.

This is the bail petition filed by applicant as per Sec.439 of Cr. P. C.

2] The say of applicant is that complaint is lodged by Kalpana Anand Bhalerao alleging that her daughter Sonal telephoned to her and told her that accused outraged the modesty when she was proceeding from Pimpri road. The say of applicant is that he did nothing and, therefore, he requested to release him on bail.

3] State appeared and objected the application.

4] I heard the submission of both the sides.

5] I have perused the police papers and found that there are allegations in the complaint by complainant that accused misbehaved with complainant's daughter Sonal aged 17 years by caught holding her hand and by trying to sit on his vehicle. The statement of Sonal is recorded by police and she stated the same story. Police have investigated the case. It seems that applicant harassed Sonal. The behaviour of applicant is objectionable. He is in jail since 06-06-2014. If we consider this aspect, then it is crystal clear since last 15 days, he is in jail for his alleged act. Now his age is 19 years. He is doing the job. His mother is present in the court. His mother is requesting to release him on bail. Considering the age of applicant and age of complainant, I say that on certain conditions, applicant shall be released on bail. So I allow the application and pass the following order.
