It is submitted by ld. Counsel that the mother of the applicant/accused has expired on 12.05.2023 and the tehrvi of the mother of the applicant/accused is fixed for 21.05.2023 and has prayed that accused may be granted custody parole for the said date instead of interim bail to perform the last rites and rituals of his mother being the eldest son. (Copy of the tehrvi card is annexed with the application).

On the other hand, ld. Addl. PP for the State has submitted that there are other members in the family of the applicant/accused who can manage the same and there is no necessity for granting custody parole and if the same is granted, the same may be granted at the cost of the accused.

Heard.

Keeping in view the fact that the applicant is the eldest son and his presence is required to perform the last rites /rituals of his mother who has expired on 12.05.2023., the applicant/accused is granted custody parole for 21.05.2023 from 10:00 am to 3.00 pm (excluding the time to be taken in to and fro) for attending the last rites/rituals of his mother. Let copy of this order be sent to concerned Jail Superintendent, with direction to take the applicant/accused at the address Village Kair, Najafgarh, New Delhi between the aforesaid relevant time period and to lodge him back in the jail after attending the said function. It is further directed that accompanying police officials should be in plain clothes. Compliance report in this regard be also sent to the Court. The application is disposed of accordingly. Let copy of this order be sent on the email ID of concerned Jail Superintendent, for information and compliance and be also given dasti to ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused.

Bail application is disposed of accordingly. It be tagged with the main case.
