DEEPAK MAAN ALIAS PRINCE Vs. THE STATE
FIR NO. 0046/2025
PS Narela Ind. Area
U/s 111(2)(a)(b)/111(4) BNS

04.04.2026

This is an application under Section 482 BNSS for grant of anticipatory bail, moved on behalf of applicant Deepak Maan @ Prince.

Present: Dr. Sarita Rani, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.

Sh. Rahul Sand, Id. Counsel for applicant/accused.

IO SI Mohit in person.

Reply to the anticipatory bail application filed. Copy supplied.

The present FIR has been registered against organized crime syndicate. It is submitted that applicant/accused is a notorious criminal and is running an organized crime syndicate with his associates namely Yudhvair @ Kalu Pandit, Sandeep Maan @ Rasa, Savinder @ Baba @ Pagal and Abhishek @ Kalu and they are continuously committing crime in an organized manner.

It is submitted by Id. Counsel by the applicant that notice was issued to the applicant/accused under Section 35(3) BNSS on 31.03.2026 to join the investigation, however, now the IO is opposing the bail application without any fresh reason or grounds for arrest. Ld. Counsel has relied upon a case titled as Satender Kumar Antil Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation MA No. 2035 of 2022 in SLP (Crl.) No. 5191 of 2021 decided by Hon'ble Apex Court vide order dated 15.01.2026, wherein it was held that “for effecting an arrest under 35(6) BNSS, 2023, it must be based upon material and factors which were not available with the police officer at the time of issuing a notice under Section 35(3) BNSS”.

It is submitted by the IO that applicant/accused is involved in several other criminal cases. To this, it is submitted by Id. Counsel for the applicant/accused that in one case he has been acquitted and in another case, he is on bail.

It is further submitted by Id. Counsel for the applicant/accused has nothing to do with the alleged offence and applicant is ready and willing to join the investigation as and when required.

Heard.

Seeing the totality of the facts and circumstances, this court is of the opinion that the applicant be given an opportunity and is directed to join the investigation as and when required by the IO, as it is reported by the IO that applicant has not joined the inquiry till date despite giving him notice.

In the meantime, it is directed that no coercive steps be taken against the applicant/accused till the NDOH.

IO is directed to file further report on the next date of hearing.

At request, application be re-notified on 17.04.2026.
