

C.C. 757/2025

Case called.

Accused is present. Complainant is present and they both submit that they wish to compound the case.

Application under Sec.359 of BNSS Act is filed by both sides.

Ld. APP present. I have heard both sides and perused the records.

The offense alleged against the accused in the above case is punishable under Sec. 303(2) of BNS Act and they are compoundable under Sec.359 of BNSS Act.

The complainant is competent to compose the case and not disqualified under Sec.359 (4)(a) & (b) of BNSS Act.

On perusal of the records we are satisfied that the compounding of the above offense is voluntary and with bonafide intention to put an end to litigation. It is in interest of both parties and also the state at large. Hence I am of the opinion that permission should be granted to compound the case. Therefore following:

ORDER

Application filed by the complainant under Sec.359 of BNSS Act is accepted and allowed.

The case is compounded in terms of Sec. 359(4)(a) and (b) of BNSS Act. Consequently, the accused is acquitted of the alleged offense under Sec.303(2) of BNS Act.

The bail bond of the accused and his surety stands canceled.
