This appn for grant of bail is filed on the grounds of merits & also for 7 days bail to attend the marriage of sister. The SPP has strongly opposed the appn. Admittedly this is the second bail appn when the first bail appn was rejected after considered the merits in the rival cases. There is admittedly no change of circumstances thereafter. Therefore, the first ground is not acceptable for grant of bail again on same grounds. The second ground of marriage of sister of applicant is now become redundant ⁱⁿ ~~where~~ as the dt. of marriage has been passed. In fact the applicant was claiming

7 days bail for that function without claiming the ~~for~~ escorting. Therefore in the present situation it was not possible also to grant such a-bail. In the result the grounds of bail are not sustainable, hence the appn is rejected.
