(This is an application under section 105 read with section 185 & 230 of BNSS for supply of recording of search and seizure through Audio Video Electronic Means filed on behalf of applicant/accused)

Present: Sh. J. S. Malik, Ld. Addl. PP for State.
IO / SI Sandeep Malik in person.
Sh. Adarsh Kumar and Ms. Shilpi, Ld. Counsels for applicant / accused Priyanshu.

The present application under section 105 read with section 185 & 230 of BNSS has been moved on behalf of applicant / accused Priyanshu for supply of recording of search and seizure through Audio Video Electronic Means in the present FIR case. In the present application, it has been alleged that the alleged knife and mobile phone has been planted by IO upon the applicant / accused Priyanshu and the version of prosecution is a mere puff and concoction and therefore, the said audio / video recording was not provided to applicant / accused Priyanshu.

Notice of the present application was issued to IO / SI Sandeep. IO appeared before the Court and informed that the said audio / video recording was done by him at the time of search and seizure on e-Sakshya app and it was not saved in the memory of his mobile phone. He has further informed that the said audio / video recording is uploaded on the e-Sakshya app but the same cannot be downloaded now.Contd2/-

Efforts were made by the IO to access the said audio/video recording, however, the same could not be played due to network issue in the Court. Assistance of Computer Branch was also taken, however, the said audio / video recording could not be accessed due to network issue.

In the present case, perusal of the record shows that all the relevant documents including charge-sheet and annexures have already been supplied to applicant / accused Priyanshu in compliance of section 230 BNSS (207 Cr.P.C.,) by Ld. JMFC concerned. Further, the audio / video recording available on e-Sakshya app shall be played and shown to applicant / accused Priyanshu at the time of recording of evidence of IO and other recovery witnesses.

In view of the above, the application moved on behalf of applicant / accused Priyanshu is disposed off.
