Order below Exh.08 in Spl. Case MCOC No.291/2025
State of Maharashtra Vs. Akash @ Babu Chottelal Parche and 1

This is an application filed by applicant, original complainant Smt.Ranjana Tanaji Randive for return of property.

2] The applicant/informant Ranjana Tanaji Randive filed this application contending therein that, on 10.01.2025, at about 02.30 p.m. when she was proceeding by a rickshaw vehicle and reached at Venus Chowk, Ulhasnagar, her gold ornament was snatched partially by the unknown persons came on two wheeler vehicle. In that regard, a complaint filed by her vide FIR No.25/2025 registered with Vitthalwadi police station, Ulhasnagar. During investigation police had seized the part of her gold ornament from the accused having its weight 8.30 mgs. The said property is pending in the custody of police. She is ready to abide the conditions. Hence urged for handing over interim custody of muddemal property to her.

3] The prosecution has filed is reply at Exh.11, stating the details of incident. Further contention of prosecution shows that, muddemal gold ornament i.e. melted gold has been seized at the instance of accused. They have no objection to release this property in favour of informant/applicant by imposing conditions.

4] Heard submissions of both sides. I have also gone through the copy of Aadhar card, copy of receipt i.e. invoice No.300 dated 02.05.2018 submitted by the applicant. At this stage it appears that, the seized property belongs to the applicant/informant. The prosecution categorically contended that, it has no objection for returning the property to the applicant by imposing conditions. Hence, this Court has no hesitation to give interim custody of muddemal property i.e. melted gold of 8.30 mgs. to the applicant by imposing conditions. In the result I pass following order.
