Police Station Maloya, Chandigarh

2nd application for grant of bail to the applicant/accused person Umesh

Present: Learned APP for the State.

Shri Deepanshu Rana, counsel for applicant/accused Umesh.

ORDER:-

This order of mine shall dispose of an second application for grant of regular bail to the applicant/accused Umesh.

2. As per contents of the application, applicant/accused have been falsely implicated in the present case. It is further mentioned that the prosecution story as reflected from the FIR, is based solely upon the version of the complainant and the allegations are highly exaggerated and motivated. The applicant has been arrested on 06.05.2026 and is presently confined in judicial custody. The applicant has been custody for about 3 months. Further, the investigation of the case is complete and the challan stands presented and no useful purpose shall be served by keeping the applicant/accused behind the bars for an indefinite period. It is further submitted that applicant/ accused person is ready to abide by all the terms and conditions of the bail order and therefore, he should be released on bail.

3. On the other hand, prosecution has filed reply, in which inter-alia opposed the bail application on the ground that applicant/accused person Umesh is very clever and sharp minded. It is further mentioned that there is great apprehension that if bail granted to applicant/accused person, he can jump the bail or can win over complainant by hook or crook. It is further mentioned that crime committed by applicant/accused is heinous in nature. Hence, bail application should be dismissed.

4. Heard. Perused. Present case FIR has been registered against applicant/accused Umesh under Sections 115(2), 118(1), 351(2) BNS & 25-54-59 Arms Act with the averments that on 05.05.2026, at about 06.48 PM, an information was received regarding a stabbing incident near Ravidas Gurdwara, Village Daddu Majra, UT, Chandigarh from the Control Room. Upon receipt of the information, the injured person was shifted to GMSH-16, by a PCR vehicle for medical treatment. The injured namely Manoj was declared fit to give his statement by the attending doctor. In his statement, the injured alleged that the accused namely Umesh wrongfully stabbed him. Accordingly, the present case was registered against the accused person.

5. In this case, allegations against the accused person are grave in nature and accused person Umesh has been booked under Sections 115(2), 118(1), 351(2) BNS & 25-54-59 Arms Act. So, keeping in view the gravity of the offences involved in the present case, this Court does not deem it appropriate to grant concession of bail to the applicant/accused Umesh. Therefore, the present bail application stands dismissed. Ahlmad is directed to attach these papers with the main file/FIR.
