State of Haryana VS Raj Kumar @ Bittu

Present:- Sh. Surender, APP for the State.
Sh. Amit Kumar, counsel for applicant.

Report from concerned police station has been received. Arguments heard on application moved by applicant Raj Kumar @ Bittu Bajrangi son of Khushi Ram for releasing Jamatalashi articles i.e. mobile phone VIVO-Y-73 and Rs. 4920/-. Report of concerned Police Station has been sought and perused. In the report, it is submitted by police that jamatalashi articles i.e. mobile phone VIVO-Y-73 and Rs. 4920/- have been recovered from Raj Kumar @ Bittu Bajrangi son of Khushi Ram (applicant). Police has raised objection in releasing the mobile phone on the ground that the mobile phone is in Hightech Lab, Gurugram for data recovery. However, the police has given no objection in releasing Rs. 4920/- cash in favour of applicant.

Learned counsel for applicant has submitted that Rs. 4920/- be released in favour of applicant as per rules.

Heard. Keeping in view the police report as well as submission of learned counsel for applicant, only Rs. 4920/- as mentioned in police report be released to the applicant as per rules, against proper receipt and identification. The application is disposed off accordingly. Papers be tagged with the main case file/FIR/Remand papers.
