Khazanchi, proprietor M/s Diksha Trading Co. v State & Anr

26.04.2025

Present : Sh. Arun Bali, Adv. for appellant with appellant.

Sh. G.S. Guraya, Chief Public Prosecutor for the State/R1.

Sh. Shiven Banga, Adv. for respondent no.2 through VC.

In this case, appellant had not file the FDR of the entire 20% of the fine amount. There was some mistake also in this regard because initially it was informed that 20% of the cheque amount has to be placed in the court in the form of FDR but later on in view of the provision, it was ordered that 20% of the fine was placed in the form of FDR.

Now, more than Rs. 1 Lac is required to be deposited in the form of FDR to complete the 20% of the fine amount in all the 04 cases. He seeks some more time on the ground that his daughter is ill and he has to spend money on the treatment of his daughter that is why he is not able to place on record the FDR. Hence, he is burdened with the cost of Rs. 5,000/-. It is made clear that if he file the medical documents, the court will consider the imposition of the cost.

Matter be listed on 08.05.2025 for arguments and also for place on record the FDR.
