Bail SC No. 860/25
FIR No. 1056/24
PS Sultanpuri
STATE Vs. Arun @ Prince

19.01.2026

One of the regular Stenographer is on leave today.

File is taken up on an application seeking bail moved on behalf of applicant Arun @ Prince.

Present : Ld. Addl. PP Sh. Vikas-II for State.
Ld. Counsel Sh. Ranjan for applicant/ accused.
IO SI Karamveer Drall is present.

The present application has been moved under Section 483 BNSS, 2023 for grant of regular bail for applicant/accused Arun @ Prince.

Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused has submitted that no similar application of the applicant/accused is pending before any other court.

Ld. Counsel for applicant further submits that FIR number has wrongly been mentioned on the application as FIR No. 1056/2025, instead of FIR No. 1056/2024 and the same may kindly be read as FIR No. 1056/2024.

At oral request of Ld. Counsel, FIR No.1056/25 is corrected as FIR No.1056/24 and be read accordingly.

A written request seeking some more time for filing the reply is received on behalf of SI Karamveer Drall on the ground that the main IO of the case, who filed the charge-sheet has left the service and the present bail application has been marked to him recently. Though, IO present today in the Court has opposed the present bail application.

During the course of arguments, Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused has submitted that applicant/accused has falsely been implicated in the present case and belongs to a poor strata. It is further submitted that applicant is uneducated / illiterate, having no proper understanding of legal procedures or court processes. It is further submitted that prior to committal of the case to this Court, due to lack of proper knowledge of court proceedings, applicant/ accused could not appear before Ld. Trial Court and owing to his non-appearance, NBWs followed with proceedings u/s. 82 Cr.P.C were initiated against the applicant/ accused and consequently, applicant was arrested on 14.11.2025 and since then, lying in J/C. It is further submitted that applicant is a first time offender, having no previous criminal antecedents. Ld. Counsel further submits that non-appearance of the applicant was neither intentional and nor deliberate and applicant undertakes to remain present on each and every date before the court. It is further submitted that investigation in the present case has already been completed and applicant/ accused is no logner required for custodial interrogation. With these submissions, Ld. Counsel prays for regular bail to applicant/ accused.

The bail application is opposed by Ld. Addl. PP for the State stating that allegations against the applicant/accused are serious in nature. Ld. Addl. PP further submits that initially applicant/ accused evaded his arrest before Ld. Trial Court pursuant to which, proceedings u/s. 82 Cr.P.C were issued against him and if he released on bail, he can again jump the bail and influence/ threaten the witnesses. With these submissions, Ld. Addl. PP for State prays for dismissal of present bail application.

Submissions heard. Record perused.

As per record, applicant/ accused has been granted regular bail vide Order dt. 04.01.2025. The applicant/ accused was arrested vide DD No.28-A dt. 12.10.2025 PS Crime Branch.

In such circumstances, the bail application of the applicant/accused Arun @ Prince is allowed. He be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds in sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety of like amount. The applicant shall not approach the witnesses of this case in any manner and shall attend the trial regularly.

It is clarified that nothing observed hereinabove shall have any bearing on the merits of the case.

The application stands disposed of accordingly.

Put up for date already fixed i.e. 16.03.2026.
