BAIL SC/724/2023(IA-4)
ST VS PAWAN@MANOJ
FIR No: 343/2023
PS: BHARAT NAGAR
u/s 302/201/34 IPC

07.01.2026

Present : Sh. K D Pachauri, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
Sh. Amar Singh, Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused.

1. This is an application u/s 483 BNSS seeking regular bail, moved on behalf of applicant/ accused Pawan @ Manoj.

2. Reply to the present application has been filed by the IO.

3. The present bail application has been moved by the Ld. Counsel for applicant/ accused on the ground that the applicant/ accused is innocent and has no connection with the present matter and has been falsely implicated in the present matter. Further that the applicant/ accused has to look after his wife, children and the old aged father as he is the sole bread earner in his family and no one else is there to look after his family members except the applicant/ accused. It is further submitted by Ld. Counsel for applicant/ accused that the applicant/ accused has been languishing in JC since 29.04.2023 and the investigation has completed and no further custodial interrogation qua the present applicant/ accused is required as all the public witnesses have been examined and only police officials are pending to be examined in the present matter. Hence, the present bail application.

4. Ld. Addl. PP strongly opposed the present bail application stating that the deceased was brutally murdered by cutting the neck completely from the body by the accused persons. The material witnesses are under examination and there is possibility that these witnesses may be threatened by the applicant/accused if bail is granted to him.

5. Heard. Perused.

6. Considering the submissions of the prosecution as well as the fact that the material witnesses are under examination and also considering the fact that there is high possibility of threat or undue influence for the witnesses, the present bail application of applicant/accused is dismissed.

7. Accordingly, the present bail application is disposed of.
