CBI v. Rajeev Chandhok & Ors.

16.10.2025

Present : Sh. V. K. Ojha, Ld. Sr. PP for CBI.

Accused no. 1, Rajeev Chandhok in person.

Sh. Hemant Shah, Sh. Akshay Rana, Sh. Vishal Mann and Sh. Ojas Kaushik, Ld. Counsels for accused no. 1.

Accused no. 2, Harvinder Singh in person.

Sh. Yash Luthra, Ld. Counsel for accused no. 2.

Accused no. 3, Ashu Jhingan in person.

Ms. Surbhi Arora, Ld. Counsel for accused no. 3 through VC.

Matter is fixed today for defense evidence.

Witness namely Gulshan Gupta from NDMC is present. He is examined, cross-examined and discharged as DW-1. Diet money paid to the witness.

Witness namely Mr. Sunil Kumar, Superintendent,
Land & Development Office, Nirman Bhawan and Mr. Ajay Mathur, Asst. Section Officer, Property Tax Department, New Delhi Municipal Council are also present but they are discharged unexamined on request of counsel for accused no. 2 with submissions that main counsel Mr. D.S. Kohli is not available today due to ill health and these witnesses can be examined only by him. Both these witnesses are bound down for next date of hearing. Diet money be paid for today.

One application for summoning of defense witnesses is filed on behalf of accused no. 1 Rajeev Chandok. Copy supplied.

No formal reply is to be filed by CBI, however, ld. SPP has opposed the present application.

Arguments heard. Record is perused.

By way of present application, the accused no. 1 seeks to summon Sh. Madhu Sudan Bihari Lal, Retired Inspector, NDMC and Consultant for the House Tax department to prove intricacies and procedure related to PTR.

The application is opposed by Ld. SPP with submissions that application is vague and it does not specify the record to be produced and scope of the witness to be summoned and that the witness is otherwise irrelevant.

Put up for further consideration/orders on the application on 28.10.2025 and for DE on 04.11.2025.
