IN THE MATTER OF: Application seeking withdrawal of the transfer petition.

CORAM: Farooq Ahmad Bhat, Judge.
JO Code JK- 00119.

Petitioner along with counsel present.

ORDER
07.09.2022

A petition for withdrawal of the transfer application has been laid by the ld. counsel for the petitioner. It is averred in the petition that the applicant does not want to proceed with the transfer application. It is averred that the applicant without any force or compulsion is moving this application for withdrawal of transfer petition and intends to withdraw the transfer application unconditionally so as to save the precious time of the court. In support of the transfer petition, the statement of the applicant has been recorded who is identified by her counsel.

I have heard the counsel for the applicant and have perused the entire record on the file. The applicant intends to withdraw the transfer application unconditionally on the count that they do not want to proceed with the transfer application. Therefore, the petition is allowed and the applicant is permitted to withdraw the transfer application unconditionally. The transfer petition is accordingly disposed of as withdrawn. The file shall be consigned to records after due completion under rules.
