

L.A.R. No.25/2022

Manikrao Sampat Sirasat (dead)
thro Lrs. & othrs.

V/s.

State Thro. Collector, Buldhana
& othrs.

ORDER BELOW EXH.21

The claimant has filed application for grant of permission to produce documents as per list at Exh.22. Ld. advocate for the claimant submitted that the said documents are material and necessary for the fair trial and adjudication of matter on merits.

2. Ld. advocate for the opponents has opposed the application. Perused the application and say. Heard both parties at length.

3. On going through the facts of the case and documents filed as per list at Exh.22, it seems that the production of documents will facilitate the adjudication of the matter on merit. The opponents have opportunity on rebuttal. Therefore, no prejudice will be cause to the opponents if production of documents is allowed. Accordingly, I pass following order.

ORDER

1. The application for production of documents is allowed.

2. No order as to costs.
