Received the case record from the Prosecution Section along with all relevant papers and the accused person namely Haripad Nama under arrest.

The accused is taken in to custody.

Registered it in my case diary.

Learned APP is present.

None appeared on behalf of the accused person.

Learned Remand Advocate Mr. Subrata Datta is present on behalf of the accused person and filed a guilty plead petition and beg for the mercy of the Court.

Heard both the sides at length.

The case is being petty, the guilty plead of the accused is accepted and convicted for the commission of offense u/s 90 (1)(b) of Tripura Police Act.

Accordingly, the convict is hereby sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 500/- in default to suffer simple imprisonment for a period of three days.

The convict could not tender the fine money, hence issue Conviction Warrant.

Thus the case is hereby disposed of without contest.

As dictated.
