

Bail Application No. 1696/2026

State Vs. Nagma

Bail Application No. 1697/2026

State Vs. Aklimun Nisha

Bail Application No. 1698/2026

State Vs. Mohd. Afaque

Bail Application No. 1699/2026

State Vs. Reshma

Bail Application No. 1700/2026

State Vs. Mohd. Altaf

Bail Application No. 1701/2026

State Vs. Mohd. Farookh Alias Miohd Farook

Bail Application No. 1702/2026

State vs. Rukaiya

FIR No. 439/2024

PS Govind Puri

13.07.2026

These are seven applications under Section 482 BNSS, filed on behalf of the applicants/accused Nagma, Aklimun Nisha, Mohd. Afaque, Reshma, Mohd. Altaf, Mohd. Farookh Alias Miohd Farook and Rukaiya for grant of anticipatory bail.

Present: Mr. A T Ansari, Ld Addl. PP for the State.

Mr. Turan Garg and Mr. Dharmendra Singh, Ld.

Counsels for applicants/accused.

IO SI Laukesh Kumar in person.

By this common order, I shall dispose of seven separate applications moved on behalf of applicants/ accused Nagma, Aklimun Nisha, Mohd. Afaq, Reshma, Mohd. Altaf, Mohd. Farookh Alias Mohd Farook and Rukaiya for grant of anticipatory bail

Arguments heard. Record perused.

During the course of arguments, it is submitted by Ld. APP that as per instructions of SHO/IO, the custodial interrogation of applicants / accused is not required in case they join the investigation.

In view of said submissions, it is evident that there is no apprehension much less reasonable apprehension of applicants being arrested in the present case.

The present applications stand disposed of in terms of aforesaid observation.

Trite to state that investigating agency shall remain bound by the undertaking given before this Court, however, applicants shall join the investigation as and when directed to do so.

Dasti to all concerned.

(Anuj Agrawal)
ASJ-03 (South East)
Saket Courts, Delhi/13.07.2026