

Sessions Case No.38 of 2009 and others.

Order below Exh.991/A.

Heard both the sides. Perused the endorsement made by Learned advocate for the applicant-accused under the oral instruction given by the accused No.21 through the video conferencing.

It has been endorsed by Learned advocate for the accused-applicant that the accused does not press for any other contents in the application except the prayer to permit the applicant-accused to fill in the form for the third year of his studies of B.A. Final and Certificate in Human Right.

Having perused the application, the accompanying documents and having heard both the sides, it appears just and proper to permit the applicant-accused viz. the accused No.21 to fill in the form for both the examinations. Hence following final order.

ORDER

1. The endorsement made by the L.A. for the applicant-accused of not pressing the contents of the application except the prayer stands recorded.
2. The applicant-accused No.21, Mehendi Hashan Abdul Habib is hereby permitted to fill in the form for B.A. final and for Certificate for Human Right according to procedure, rules and regulations prevalent in the Jail and according to the practice adopted for such purposes by the Jail Administration.

With the above direction, this application stands disposed of as partly allowed to an extent of the endorsement made by the L.A. for the applicant-accused and is accordingly disposed of.

A Yadi of this order be sent to the Jail Authority for the compliance of the order by the Registry.

Dictated and pronounced in the open Court today on this 10th day of July, 2013.
