under Sections 118(1),115(2), 3(5),126(2) of BNS, 2023 and Section 117(2) 118(2), 117(2) of BNS added later on vide GD No.36 dated 09.06.2026
Police Station, Kotli Surat Mallian

Application for bail under Section 482 BNSS New (438 Cr. P.C Old)

Present: Sh.H.S. Janjua, Advocate, counsel for applicant/accused Learned Additional P. P for State

ORDER

1. This order of mine shall dispose of bail application U/s 482 B.N.S.S filed on behalf of the applicant/accused Gurpal Singh Fauji for grant of anticipatory bail.
2. Notice of the application was issued to the State. Police record has been received.
3. Learned counsel for the applicant has argued that the applicant/accused is innocent and has been falsely implicated in the present FIR. He has not committed any offence. Nothing was recovered from applicant/accused. The applicant/accused is ready to join investigation and custodial interrogation of applicant is not required. Accordingly, he has prayed for grant of bail to the applicant.
4. Per contra learned Additional PP for the State opposed the bail application and prayed for its dismissal.

5. Rival contentions of both the sides have been heard and the record has been perused with due care and circumspection.

6. Perusal of record reveals that present FIR has been registered on the statement of complainant Kulwant Singh who got recorded his statement before the police to the effect that on 03.06.2026, he alongwith his son Amanjit Singh went to their fields. When they returning to home, at about 11.30 A.M, they found that Gurpal Singh Fauji armed with datar, Sabbi armed with baseball and Avtar Singh armed with with Dattri were coming on tractor make Swaraj 855. Thereafter, Gurpal Singh raised a lalkara to catch hold of them. Gurpal Singh gave a dattar blow which landed on the left hand of this thumb. Sabbi gave baseball blow which landed on his upper lip, due to which, his upper teeth was broken. Then accused Avtar Sinigh gave a dattri blow which hit on his right side of forehead. Thereafter he raised hue and cry and thereafter all the accused persons fled away from the spot. On the aforesaid statement of complainant, the FIR in question was registered against the applicant/accused and others.

7. Perusal of the record reveals that the FIR in question has been registered against the applicant/accused and other under Sections 118(1),115(2), 3(5),126(2) of BNS, 2023 and Section 117(2) 118(2), 117(2) of BNS added later on vide GD No.36 dated 09.06.2026. The main allegations against the applicant/accused are that he alongwith his co accused gave five injuries on the person of complainant. As per medical record, injuries No.1 and 4 have been shown to be sharp whereas injuries No.2 ,3 and 5 as blunt in nature. Offence under Sections 117(2) 118(2), 117(2) of BNS have been added later on vide GD No.36 dated 09.06.2026. Allegations against the applicant/accused are that applicant/accused raised a lalkara to catch hold of complainant party. He gave a dattar blow which landed on the left hand of thumb of complainant. Injury falling under Section 326 of IPC is attributed to the applicant/accused. Connivance of the applicant/accused with his co-accused can not be ruled out at this stage. Allegations are quite serious one. The investigation is still under progress. There are direct and serious allegations against the applicant/accused and a thorough probe is required into the matter for which custodial interrogation of the applicant is required. Hence, this court is of the considered opinion that no ground for grant of anticipatory bail to the accused/applicant is made out. The court is of the opinion that granting anticipatory bail to the accused/applicant at this stage would rather hinder the process of investigation. Accordingly, the instant bail application filed by the applicants/accused stands dismissed. File be consigned to the record room.
