

Sushma Maurya Vs. Pawan Kumar
CA No. 125/2024

15.09.2025

Present : Appellant in person.

Respondent with counsel Sh. Deepak Kumar Gupta.

Appellant submits that vide order dated 29.04.2025, Ld. predecessor of this court directed the respondent to pay arrears of Rs.1,05,000/- to her, however, same have not been paid till date.

On perusal of order dated 25.04.2025, it is found that on that day respondent sought adjournment to ascertain the arrears and my Ld. predecessor directed him to pay the arrears, if the same are found pending towards him. Today, respondent submits that as per his knowledge, no arrears are due towards him, but he seeks adjournment to ascertain the same before making any conclusive submission in this regard. Last and final opportunity is given to the respondent for the same and he is again directed that in case the arrears as mentioned in the order dated 25.04.2025 are due against him, same be paid by the next date.

Adjournment sought by appellant that her counsel is not available today.

Put up for further proceedings on 13.11.2025. TCR be sent back and be called again two days before the next date.
