State Vs. Manoj @ Deepak

19.06.2026

ORDER ON APPLICATION U/S 483 BNSS FOR GRANT OF REGULAR BAIL

Present : Sh. Pradeep Kumar, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
Ms. Alka Kumari Singh, Ld. Counsel for the applicant/ accused.

1. Charge-sheet has been received.
2. By way of the present order, this court shall decide the application moved on behalf of accused Manoj @ Deepak seeking regular bail.
3. It is argued on behalf of the applicant that applicant/ accused is in JC since 05.03.2026; that investigation stands completed, charge-sheet has already been filed and the applicant has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is further contended that applicant has no past criminal record nor he has been involved in any other criminal case and that he is sole bread earner of the family and prolonged incarceration shall cause irreparable hardship to his family members. It is further contended that the trial of the case is likely to take considerable time and therefore, he prayed that the applicant may be granted bail.

4. Per contra, learned Addl. PP for the State has opposed the application in view of the seriousness of the offence, the nature of injuries suffered by the victim and the possibility of influencing witnesses.

5. I have considered the rival submissions and carefully perused the record.

6. In the present case investigation stands completed and charge-sheet has already been filed. The allegations levelled against the applicant are grave in nature. As per the prosecution case, the present case has been registered on the complaint of victim Praveen S/o Radhey Shyam regarding a serious assault committed by the accused Manoj @ Deepak on 04.03.2026. The accused intentionally attacked the victim and threatened him with dire consequences by stating that he would kill him. Thereafter, the accused assaulted the victim with a sharp piece of broken glass and inflicted injuries on the neck and other parts of the body. The MLC of the injured victim was obtained from LBS Hospital. As per the final medical opinion, the nature of injuries sustained by the victim has been opined as "Grievous". The injury was inflicted on a vital part of the body i.e. the neck, clearly reflecting the intention and knowledge of the accused.

7. The accused is specifically named in the FIR by the complainant. The accused was arrested on same day of registering FIR i.e 05/03/26. The offence alleged against the accused is grave and serious in nature. The attack was made on a vital part of the body with a sharp-edged object and the victim could have lost his life but for timely medical intervention. The allegations against the accused are supported by the statement of the victim, eyewitness accounts, medical evidence, video evidence and other material collected during investigation.

8. The offence alleged is serious, involves use of a deadly weapon and pertains to an attack resulting in serious injuries to the complainant.

9. In view of the foregoing discussion, this Court is of the considered opinion that the complainant is yet to be examined, the allegations are grave, the role attributed to the applicant is direct and specific, and the interests of justice do not warrant grant of bail at this stage.

10. Accordingly, the present application for grant of regular bail stands dismissed. TCR be sent back.

11. Nothing stated herein shall be construed as an expression on the merits of the case during trial. Copy dasti.
