

33 CS No. 2125/16
NARENDER KUMAR VASHISHT AND ORS Vs. SMT
ANITA SHARMA

16.09.2023

Present: Sh. Varun Ahuja, Ld. counsel for Plaintiff with son of plaintiff.
Sh. R. N. Dubey and Sh. Tarun Garg, Ld. counsel for Defendant.

This Court has received Letter No. 108-119/SCMSC/DHC/2023 dated 12.09.2023 of Hon'ble High Court of Delhi regarding 75 oldest cases pending in the District.

Perusal of record shows that present matter pertains to year 2008. Perusal of record further shows that instant matter is one of oldest matter pending in this court & is listed at Sr. No. 54 in the list of 75 oldest cases.

Vide aforesaid Letter, Hon'ble High Court of Delhi has directed the Courts to take up oldest matters at least twice a week and not to grant any adjournment in the same unless extremely necessary and shall take all requisite steps to dispose of the said cases by 31.12.2023.

Ld. counsels have been apprised of said Letter and directions of Hon'ble High Court of Delhi & it is impressed upon all parties/Ld. Counsels not to seek unnecessary adjournments in this matter and to proceed with this matter in an expedite manner.

-2-

Two applications of Defendant i.e. one under Order 11 Rule 14 CPC dated & second under Order 1 Rule 10 CPC both dated 23.04.2019 are listed for arguments.

Record reveals that Plaintiff has not filed reply to said applications till date.

Today, reply to both applications filed by ld. counsel for plaintiff (under his signatures only).

Ld. counsel for defendant objects to filing of reply to his applications today by stating that same are not accompanied by any supporting affidavit of plaintiff.

Since applications were filed way back on 23.04.2019, last and final opportunity is hereby granted to Plaintiff to file reply thereof on or before next date with advance copy to other side, failing which, his right to file reply shall stand closed. Further, ld. counsel for plaintiff is always at liberty to argue orally upon said applications.

Put up for arguments on aforesaid applications on 19.09.2023 and 22.09.2023 at 12.30 PM. (date given as per consensus of ld. counsels for parties.)

(Mohammad Ehtesham)
ADJ-03(Shahdara),
KKD Courts, Delhi
16.09.2023.