

ORDER BELOW EXH. 5 IN REG. CIVIL APPEAL NO. 25/2026
CNR: MHSN040003282026

(Shri. Satish Baban Ingale Vs. Dattatraya Manohar Bartakke Etc.)

1. The appellant has filed present application seeking interim injunction against the respondents as not to oust from the suit property. It is contention of appellant that prior to agreement to sell, he was in possession of the suit property as tenant. After dismissal of the suit, defendants tried to oust him from the suit property. Caveat is filed on behalf of respondent nos. 1(b) and 1(d) only. Their Advocate is present and sought time to file reply.

2. On perusal of contents of plaint, it appears that applicant pleaded that he was tenant in the suit property and subsequently, agreement to sell is executed. Considering apprehension of ousting from the suit property, till filing of the say by the respondents, parties are directed to maintain status-quo.
