

SC No. 61/2025, IA No. 05/2025
State Vs. Vivek Sharma
FIR No. 378/2024
PS: Jyoti Nagar
U/s 126(2)/109(1)/103(1)/117/3(5) BNS
& 25/27 Arms Act

29.11.2025

File is taken up on an application under Section 482 BNSS seeking interim bail moved on behalf of applicant/accused Vivek Sharma @ Bhoori.

Present: Sh. S.K. Dubey, Ld. Addl. PP for the State.
None for applicant/accused.

Arguments on the present application already heard.

1. Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused had submitted that Sh. Priyadutt Sharma, cousin of the applicant/accused is going to marry on 30.11.2025 at Meerut, Uttar Pradesh; that applicant/accused Vivek Sharma @ Bhoori and his cousin Priyadutt Sharma are very close to each other and the presence of the applicant/accused is required to perform certain rituals in the marriage ceremony of his cousin brother since the father of his cousin brother has died. Therefore, interim bail may be granted to the applicant/accused.

2. Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused had further submitted that the applicant/accused is ready to abide by any terms and conditions, if imposed and is also ready to furnish reliable surety to the entire satisfaction of the Hon'ble Court, therefore, the applicant/accused may be admitted on interim bail. Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused has requested that if no interim bail then, at least, custody parole may be granted to the applicant/accused to attend marriage of his cousin brother.

3. Ld. Addl. PP for the State had opposed the present application while submitting that the allegations against the applicant/accused are grave in nature. It was argued by Ld. Addl. PP for the State that trial of the matter is at a nascent stage and there is possibility that applicant/accused may jump the interim bail or may try to threaten or influence the witnesses.

Ld. Addl. PP for the State had further submitted that he has no objection, if custody parole is granted to the applicant/accused Vivek Sharma @ Bhoori to attend the marriage of his cousin brother Priyadutt Sharma.

4. This Court has heard the arguments on this application and has also perused the available record.

5. A verification report filed by the IO and the factum of marriage of cousin brother of the applicant/accused on 30.11.2025 has been verified.

6. As per Delhi Police Rules, 2018, custody parole can be granted to accused/applicant. The relevant rule is as below:-

"1203. "Custody Parole" may be granted to the convict by an order in writing, issued by the Superintendent Prison and to the under trial prisoners by the trial court concerned, for a period of not more than six hours, excluding the time taken to reach the destination and return to Prison, in the following eventualities:-

i. Death of a family member;

ii. Marriage of a family member;

iii. Serious illness of a family member or iv. Any other emergency circumstances with the approval of DIG (Range) of prisons."

7. Considering the aforesaid submissions of Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused, verification report filed by the IO and in order to enable to applicant/accused to attend marriage of his cousin brother Priyadutt Sharma, custody parole for a period of 06 hours i.e. from 01:00 PM to 07:00PM, is granted to the accused/ applicant Vivek Sharma @ Bhoori on 30.11.2025 excluding the time of journey.

8. Concerned Jail Superintendent is directed to make necessary arrangements for taking the accused/applicant Vivek Sharma @ Bhoori to Village Bhood Baral, Partapur, District Meerut, Uttar Pradesh and is also directed to ensure that after completion of maximum 06 hours, the accused/ applicant Vivek Sharma @ Bhoori is again lodged in the jail. It is clarified that all the expenses shall be borne by the applicant/accused himself.

9. Copy of this order be given dasti to Ld. Counsel for accused/ applicant and be also sent to the concerned Jail Superintendent, forthwith, through all electronic modes. The application stands disposed of.
