...Respondent/Complainant

Petition dated 06.08.2026 U/s.482 BNSS to grant anticipatory bail.

This petition coming on this day for hearing before me, in the presence of Thiru.V.Vilavadurai, B.Com., B.L., the learned Counsel for the petitioners and of Thiru.B.Velayutham, B.A., B.L., the learned Public Prosecutor for the State and upon hearing both sides submissions, this Court passes the following:

ORDER

The petitioners/A1, A2 accused who were apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police in Cr.No.174/2026 for the offences punishable U/s.296(b), 115(2), 118(1), 351(2) BNS, seek anticipatory bail.

2. According to the prosecution, there was a previous enmity between the defacto complainant and the 1st petitioner. Due to which, on 03.08.2026 at about 6.00 p.m when the defacto complainant was going to his house, the petitioners came there and abused him in filthy language and assaulted him with stick on his left side head and also assaulted his mother, wife and brother who had questioned, with hands and stone on their chest, cheek and right hand wrist and pushed them down and trampled on them and caused injuries and also threatened them with dire consequences and on complaint the case was registered.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners contended that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case and they are in no way connected with the offence. He further contended that the injured were discharged from hospital and that most of the investigation is complete and that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners and that if the petitioners are released on anticipatory bail, they are ready to obey the conditions imposed if any and they would not tamper or threaten the witnesses and hence he prays to release the petitioners on anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor contended that the the injured were discharged from hospital on 09.08.2026 and that five witnesses have been examined and that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners.

5. Considering the nature of offence and facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that the injured were discharged from hospital and that the substantial part of the investigation is over and also that there are no antecedents against the petitioners, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with the following conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvadanai; on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate concerned and if the petitioners/accused did not surrender within 15 days from the date of this order, this anticipatory bail stands canceled automatically and on further conditions that:

ii) that the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the learned Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhaar card or Bank pass book to ensure their identity;

iii) that the petitioners shall report before the Inspector of Police, respondent police station daily twice at 10.30 a.m and 5.00 p.m for a period of one month and on further condition that they shall make available themselves for interrogation as and when required by the investigation Officer;

iv) that the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witnesses either during investigation or trial;

vi) that the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

vii) that on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners are released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji-vs- State of Kerala(2005) AIR SCW 5560;

viii) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered U/s.269 BNS, 2023.

Pronounced by me in open court, this the 10th day of August 2026.
