Summary Cases/5800007/2023
ADANI ELECTRICITY MUMBAI LIMITED
DISTRIBUTION Vs. PRIYANKA PRADEEP
ROKADE

IN THE COURT OF JUDICIAL MAGISTRATE(FIRST CLASS),
58TH COURT, BANDRA, MUMBAI
ORDER BELOW EXH.01

Complainant and advocate on record absent.

2. Heard accused and her advocate. Perused the photocopy of UPI payment receipt for Rs.10,000/- dated 17.11.2023. She submitted that due to death of her husband she could not pay the electricity bill within time. Cheque was given towards security. Later on, she had paid amount of outstanding electricity bill. She also shown me current electricity bill dated 10.10.2025. Looking into all the documents and absence of complainant and their advocate, there is reason to believe that accused has paid the amount of disputed cheque.

3. No substance remains to keep the file as it is for trial in absence of non existence of legal liability. Rather it would be an harassment for a poor lady to attend the dates of the court. Had it been not so, complainant, its authorized representative or advocate would have remained present and taken appropriate steps. Hence, I pass following order.

ORDER

1. In view of payment made by the accused and absence of complainant, complaint stands dismissed under section 256(1) of Code of Criminal Procedure.
2. Warrants issued against accused stands cancelled.

3. Accused is acquitted of the offence punishable under section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act.
4. Order dictated and pronounced in open court.

Dated : 29.10.2025.
