ORDER BELOW EXH. 20 IN MISC. APPLICATION NO.780/2016

Sulchana Vs. Ashok

1. Perused application filed by non-applicant No. 1 to 3, 7 and 8 and say filed on it.
2. Heard both the parties through their respective advocates.
3. Non-applicants have filed an instant application and submitted that they have received notice of the Court. However, they could not filed their say within stipulated time. Thus, there is delay of 34 days. Hence, non-applicants have prayed that said delay be condoned, otherwise, they would cause prejudice.
4. Per contra, applicant has opposed to the application and submitted that reason mentioned in the application is not at all proper. Non-applicants are trying to prolong the matter. Hence, in all, applicant has prayed for rejection of application by imposing costs.
5. On perusal of record, it appears that non-applicants No. 1 to 3, 7 and 8 have moved the instance application and claimed that they have failed to filed their say within stipulated time and as such, there is delay of 34 days. Therefore, they have prayed for condoning the same. Admittedly, there is delay on the part of non-applicants. However, considering the reason and in the larger interest of justice, it would be proper to grant an opportunity to non-applicant, otherwise, they would cause prejudice forever. Therefore, I proceed to pass following order-
