

1 This application for anticipatory bail under section 482 of Bhartiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (B.N.S.S.) with this application for interim anticipatory bail on apprehension of arrest in Crime No.518/2026 registered with police station Sangola against the present applicants.

2 Learned advocate for the applicants submitted that in the background of facts that present applicants had made complaint of informant about illegal excavation of the soil from stream situated village Dhayati, Tal. Sangola in between the agricultural land of accused and informant, therefore, informant has lodged false report against them.

3 The documents produced along with application reveals that the marriage ceremony of grand daughter from the family of applicants is proposed to be celebrated on 19.06.2026 and there is every possibility that if the applicants are not protected by grant of interim anticipatory bail, it will cause irreparable loss of family and bride. The ground to protect liberty needs to be considered in reference to bar of Sec.18 of SC/ST Act on the settled legal ratio and observations of criteria of judgment specifically in case of Pruthviraj Chavan Vs. Union of India (2020) 4 page 727, where in the Hon'ble Apex Court, laid down that, "there is no prime facie case made out for the offence under Sec.3 of the Act, the bar U/s.18 of the Act, is not attracted and court can consider the petition seeking anticipatory bail".

4 Applying this ratio to the facts of the crime, on perusal of FIR use of alleged words abuse on caste in background of the dispute between the parties, and enmity between them. Therefore, I am of the view that interim protection against apprehended arrest of applicants be granted.

5 The learned Advocate for the applicants submitted that the applicants are ready to abide the terms of conditions if anticipatory bail granted to applicants/accused No.1 to 3 and they are ready to co-operate the investigation agency and will not tamper and hamper with the prosecution evidence and witness, contact with injured and witness. Considering the allegations of FIR, as no specific role attributed to the present applicants there is prima facie no necessity of custodial interrogation of the applicants, hence, application is allowed on terms and conditions. Hence, the order.
